

THE CALIFORNIA OFFICE OF EMERGENCY SERVICES (OES) AND
THE LOS ANGELES COUNTY REGIONAL TRAINING CENTER ARE PROUD TO PRESENT:

WORKING IN THE EDGE OF

CHAOS

Meeting the Challenges of the Golden Hour

This course was created to achieve measurable student outcomes utilizing blended learning, classroom facilitation, and scenario-based training for critical incident commanders.

Students will demonstrate the ability to apply intuitive sense-making strategies while working in a fast-changing, chaotic environment by using the 5 tenets of Working in The Edge of Chaos®.

Graduates of this course will have the knowledge and skills to establish and maintain a productive and purposed incident command.

Development and Instructor Cadre Includes:

Sid Heal

Commander, LASD (retired), President
California Association of Tactical Officers

Mike Hillmann

Assistant Chief, LA Port Police (Ret)
Deputy Chief LAPD (Ret)
Assistant Sheriff, OCSD (Ret)

Jay Johnson

Chief, Newport Beach PD (Ret)

Mike Jones

Capt., Sacramento County SD

L.D Maples

Assistant Chief, CHP

Steve Nottingham

Lt. Long Beach PD (Ret)

Cynthia Renaud

Chief, Folsom PD

SESSION 1:

MAY 21-25, 2018
LAKE NATOMA INN
FOLSOM, CA

SESSION 2:

JUNE 4-7, 2018
DEVELOPMENTAL CNTR
COSTA MESA, CA

Register at: www.lacrctc.org/chaos

Contact : Chris Bouse (888) 782-4969

Email: Chaos@lacrctc.org

Cal OES

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
OF EMERGENCY SERVICES

Tuition , Travel and Lodging Provided by Cal OES

THIS COURSE IS ELIGIBLE FOR THE USE OF HOMELAND SECURITY GRANT FUNDS